

GLASTONBURY CO-OPERATIVE FAIR

co-operate
AND WE CAN CHANGE
the world

Tuesday June 23rd

4:30pm to 8pm

Glastonbury Town Hall

THIS beautiful IDEA

Written and performed by Tony Walsh
© Tony Walsh / Longleis Ltd 2006
All rights reserved

GLASTONBURY CO-OPERATIVE FAIR

A celebration of our co-operative, mutual and fair-trade community, during 'Co-operatives Fortnight'

At this FREE event, find out what a Co-operative is, and how community ownership can change the way we work. Hear from experts and talk with some of the many Glastonbury organisations already working in cooperative ways.

16:30 Opening by Mayor Zoe Price: Co-ops Fortnight theme 'Co-operate and we can change the world', with Co-ops UK poem 'This beautiful idea'.

16:45 Opening remarks by Don Morris, CEO Radstock Co-op Society.

14:55 Talk by Pete Vallance, Strategy Manager, Co-operative Councils Innovation Network: co-operative engagement, inclusive participation, community wealth building and co-operative placemaking.

17:20 Talk by Alex Lawrie, Southwest Co-operative Development: Co-op identity, values, and principles. The Co-op movement in the Southwest.

17:45 Coffee break

18:00 Co-op Carousel: a chance to visit 15-minute table discussions, hosted by local Glastonbury cooperators on a range of topics and projects:

- Housing
- Energy
- Transport
- Finance
- Community Mapping
- Fair Trade and Worker Co-ops
- Gardening for community
- Growing, gardening and food
- Arts, culture, music
- Pilgrimage, visitors, spirituality and faith

19:00 Coffee break

19:15 Co-operative engagement. Launch of GTC pioneer project: Green Space Management.

19:30 Networking, notices, stalls visits.

20:00 Closing words and next steps.

Plus, lots of interesting & inspiring stalls and displays.

Associate Member
Cooperative Councils'
Innovation Network

